

One-Day Chest Drive to Open Here Next Week

Next Thursday, Nov. 4, the 30th annual appeal of the Los Angeles Community Chest will open.

And on the home front—a policy of "getting down to brass tacks" as a means of raising 11,131 of Torrance's $20,720 Red Feather goal within one day—will be carried out by over 500 volunteers organized under the direction of Mrs. Ella Schwartz, city chairman.

According to the pattern of campaign procedure set forth by Mrs. Schwartz at a kick-off instruction meeting attended by more than 30 campaign leaders, volunteers will assemble at the Torrance YWCA for a brief round-up meeting next Thursday morning before forming a television audience for the "Red Feather School House" to be shown over KTLA, Channel 5, at 10 a.m.

Canvassers to Start

At the conclusion of the 15-minute drama, volunteers will then disperse and armed with the Chest's new "fair share plan" will set out to bid every family in Torrance to once more participate in the united way of giving to 164 Red Feather services.

The YWCA will serve as the central campaign headquarters from which workers will conduct their campaign operations. Two other temporary campaign headquarters will be set up in El Retiro Park, Hollywood Riviera; and Master Hall, North Torrance. Baby sitting headquarters are set up to help volunteers to devote the day to Red Feathers solicitation activities will be maintained by students of the Home Economics Dept. at Torrance High School.

Help Cited

In asking the cooperation of all residents necessary to assure the ultimate success of the 1954 Chest campaign in Torrance, Mrs. Schwartz pointed out that the Chest through its 164 agencies helped 1296 persons from Torrance, Lomita, and Rolling Hills during the past year. "Remember," she urged in conclusion, "the needs of these agencies are the needs of our own community. How will we respond to their annual call for help reflects the interest we have in our community and in its welfare."

Glass Window Broken

A $100 plate glass window was broken, apparently with a pellet gun, the Farmers Exchange, of 24112 Narbonne Ave., Lomita, reported to sheriff's deputies Wednesday.
